VOICES of ALOHA Beyond the Beach (Voices of Maui Series) (Volume 10) Norm Bezane

Voices of Maui Beyond the Beach is one of the few books about contemporary people over the last four decades who have helped shape modern Maui: Hawaiians explaining their rich culture, movers and shakers, colorful characters, entrepreneurs, entertainers and preservers of history. A bonus section tells the story of the evolution of the island from the landing of Captain Cook in 1778, to the unification of the islands by King Kamehameha the Great, the arrival of missionaries, the creation of a plantation economy, the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy and the arrival of passengers jets and creation of a robust tourist industry. This last sort section draws a concise picture of the making of Hawaii and its transition from monarchy, to territory, to state.
