Opportunity awaits you outdoors on North Carolina's riding trails. Within a few hours drive, you can be riding down the trail and enjoying a variety of breathtaking scenery. From the mountains to the sea, adventure rewards those who answer its call. Trail riding is a popular pastime and hobby for horsemen regardless of breed interest, riding style, age or experience. Trail riding is memorable no matter where you choose to ride when you hear autumn leaves rustle beneath your mounts hooves, see startled white tailed deer leap across your path, hear the sound of wild turkeys gobble in the nearby forest, or watch the rippling of a river on its way to the sea. Those who have never enjoyed the outdoors on the back of a horse have truly missed one of life's treasures.
