Del año de las vacas flacas (Spanish Edition) Ricardo Chamorro

Los treinta y cinco relatos que componen Del año de las vacas flacas, ópera prima de Ricardo Chamorro, son realidad, registros que la mirada de un narrador con mixturas de hablantes pone ante los lectores. Estos registros cargan con la acidez y la ironía simultáneamente. Nos podemos reír a carcajadas, para luego reflexionar hondo sobre la condición humana. Tienen estos relatos la rapidez del lente que hace paneos sobre particularidades de los sujetos de la ciudad que habitan un espacio atravesado por el neoliberalismo y la soledad. También hay, en la primera parte del libro, esos guiños de intratextualidad en donde se discute por la condición misma de escribir. En la parte segunda se hace un recorrido por las diversas fronteras a las que el sujeto se ve enfrentado adentro de la ciudad; un desplazamiento por todas esas zonas empíricas y abstractas, y profundamente contradictorias, en el que se le hace una intensiva y delicada radiografía a la urbe.
