Gli arpeggi delle Mammole (Italian Edition) Simonetta Caminiti

I diciassette anni di Diana sono scivolati davanti ai suoi occhi azzurri e puliti quasi senza che se ne accorgesse: orgogliosa, solitaria, più impegnata a guardar vivere le persone che ama che ad attraversare la vita sulle sue gambe. A farle ombra, la sua sorella adottiva di vent'anni: la bella Khady, esotica e mulatta con l'irresistibile dono del canto. E a registrare le sue confidenze, un'improbabile suora laica. Ma è il 1999, il nuovo millennio è alle porte, e tutto può accadere a chi ha diciassette anni. Anche inciampare in un passato di segreti che tagliano il cuore, ed essere invasi da sentimenti e scoperte destinati a cambiare per sempre la strada verso il futuro.

“È la storia di una generazione, i ragazzi del Millennium Bug, il baco che ha salvato i computer ma ha rosicchiato fette di anima. È la tristezza leggera come un velo e invadente come l'odore dell'erba del parco in cui avviene il primo vero incontro tra Diana e Filippo”. (Sabrina Cottone, giornalista de Il Giornale).
