Inferno Vol.1 #2 Mike Carey

The were-woman Shule Borraial faces death by fire in Holt's palace, and Travis faces a fragment of his forgotten past on the rooftops of the city. Meanwhile, Nostradamus faces the anti-magical might of Malatesta. It's not a good day in Hell for anybody, and for one of the three, it may be their last. But what have you got to be afraid of when you're already dead and damned? "It's in these self-contained stories that we see how talented Carey is. His imagination and appreciation of the human heart make for storytelling that is both entertaining and thought-provoking." - Fandom.com
