America's Worship Wars Terry W. York

The music of the church is not only a meaningful part of Christian worship but has been a major prt of the battle over worship styles. Terry York invites the reader along as he retraces his journey of experience in church music. Along the way, he explores the perspectives, agendas and tactics of those involved in the conflicts, traces the recent history of church music, explores the connection with America's "culture wars" and suggests some theological perspectives. York invites the reader to join in the dialogue with his engaging story of the recent changes and battles over the music and worship of the church.
