La corona maldita (Spanish Edition) Mari Pau Domínguez

Mari Pau Domínguez vuelve a desvelarnos los secretos más íntimos de los protagonistas de nuestra Historia en esta novela sobre Felipe V, el primer Borbón que reinó en España, y la mujer que estuvo a su lado en el lecho y en el trono.

Una novela cautivadora, escandalosa y fascinante.

Un rey obsesionado con el tiempo y la muerte. Una reina dispuesta a todo por el futuro de sus hijos. Una relación marcada por la lujuria, el temor y la intriga.

Abrumado por el peso de una corona que nunca deseó, Felipe V encuentra en Isabel de Farnesio, su segunda esposa, a una mujer inteligente y ambiciosa, además de a una ávida cómplice en sus escandalosos juegos de cama.

Pero ni siquiera la reina puede vencer los enormes miedos y ataques de melancolía que asaltan a Felipe cada vez con más frecuencia. El rey vive acosado por las sospechas de que una maldición se cierne sobre su figura y sobre su dinastía, la de los Borbones. Cuando la obsesión empieza a hacer mella en su ánimo, acaba por convencerse de que solo su abdicación podrá salvar a España, y a sí mismo, del abismo del caos.

Con su magistral sensibilidad narrativa, Mari Pau Domínguez nos abre la puerta de las alcobas reales para mostrarnos la atrevida intimidad del primer rey Borbón y su compleja relación con el destino que habían marcado para él.
