Classic Stories for a Girl's Heart (Radio Theatre)

Experience a world of adventure, romance, and mystery with these amazingly lifelike audio dramatizations of three of the most beloved stories of all time! These enduring classics were created by the award-winning production team that brought you The Chronicles of Narnia. Using a soaring musical score and expertly crafted sound design, each story features captivating performances by a full cast of actors, including world champion figure skater Tara Lipinski, Gemma Jones from Sense and Sensibility, Mae Whitman from The Jungle Book 2 and many others.

Anne of Green Gables is the endearing story of an imaginative orphan whose spirit could never be broken. Imagine being on Prince Edward Island with Anne as she experiences the ups and downs of growing up. Despite her attitude and precocious personality, this little girl's feisty determination wins the hearts of a caring family.

Explore The Secret Garden in Frances Hodgson Burnett's story of growth, maturity, and new beginnings. In this remarkable audio dramatization, orphan Mary Lennox uncovers the secrets of Misselthwaite Manor.

Discover why her uncle mysteriously locked up the garden and buried the key after his wife's death.

Louisa May Alcott's Little Women is full of adventure and romance. Full of joys and sorrows, this is the story of the March family—four very different sisters and their mother—who face troubled times while their father is away in the Civil War. They love each other dearly, but come together bravely in the face of turmoil and challenges.
