Malagigi (Trekkking) (Italian Edition) Alessandranna D'Auria

Carlo Magno. Paladini. Roncisvalle. Nomi che riportano alla mente epici scenari, innamoramenti e fonti magiche, le valorose gesta degli antichi cavalieri di Ludovico Ariosto e Torquato Tasso. Ed è qui che giace, quasi nascosta tra le maglie della trama delle più famose imprese dei paladini francesi, una storia intrisa di magia, che scalpita per essere raccontata e condivisa. Una storia che porta alla ribalta un personaggio controverso, tale Malagigi, potentissimo stregone cresciuto ed educato dallo stesso Merlino, ago della bilancia nella lotta tra bene e male, tra indomiti cavalieri cristiani e temibili guerrieri turchi, tra creature angeliche e ripugnanti rigetti degli Inferi.

Nella prima parte del romanzo ci ritroveremo a seguire le disavventure del piccolo ma intraprendente Richair, incaricato della missione più pericolosa di tutte: richiamare il temibile (nonché inconfondibile e temuto) Malagigi, dalla sua prigione incantata affinché, grazie alle sue arti stregonesche (un pasticciaccio brutto di magia nera e bianca... più nera che bianca, a dirla tutta!), aiuti i Paladini di Carlo Magno, ormai debilitati e privi di qualsivoglia motivazione, nella lotta contro i turchi. La seconda parte scenderà sempre più in profondità nell'animo e nella vita del franco negromante, esplorando la travagliata giovinezza dello stregone, la sua affannata sete di vendetta e il suo insostituibile rapporto con il cugino Astolfo, che condividerà una parte imprescindibile del suo destino.
