A user-friendly collection of resources for supervisors working from a systemic perspective which can be used for teaching and training supervisors and in the day-to-day practice of supervision. It includes reproducible forms for evaluation, contracting and record-keeping, as well as learning exercises, assessment instruments, and lists of specialized written and A/V resources. Challenging questions are included to stretch even experienced supervisors and to help all supervisors articulate and refine their personal philosophy of supervision. Any supervisor, regardless of theoretical orientation, should find easily utilized tools for teaching supervision and for putting their practice of supervision on a sound foundation.
