Through Becky's Eyes (Volume 1) H.E. Kline

Caught in the cesspool of the inner court system, Becky Lawrence can't believe her dream job, Assistant U.S. Attorney, is turning into a delicious nightmare, thanks to her new boss, Zach Woods. Though he's married and they disagree on policy and procedure, there's no doubt they're in one accord when it comes to sex. Crazy hot sex that makes your hair stand on end sex! It wouldn't be so bad if she could keep her emotions out of the equation, but love is slowly filling her heart for her handsome boss, making Becky shake and quake when Zach sexes her up with those hot, dark eyes of his!

Assisting Zach in the courtroom is a trial within the trial for Becky. He's as brash as he is brilliant. Becky runs interference for him, but even her patience has its limits! To add to the angst, there's a ghost, Charlie, in the courthouse -- yes, a real live (or should we say dead) ghost who haunts the courtrooms seeking the justice he never received justice. Becky understands Charlie's frustration. Every day she sees lawyers make deals with criminals while sacrificing the victims at the altar of "getting the big fish"! Her ideal of the perfect judicial system is being replaced with a stark picture of how the process really works....

Through it all, Becky has Zach's back. As they fall deeper into sex and sin, Becky receives the shock of her life. With a heavy heart, she realizes her perfectly imperfect life is crashing around her. But how could she ever imagine being bad may bring her the greatest good?

WARNING

This is an erotic, romantic true-crime thriller that contains elements which may be disturbing and offensive. If you are bothered or triggered by violence, crime and/or abuse, please read with extreme caution. For a mature audience only! Written by a former Federal Official Court Reporter who used actual court records based on real cases that were prosecuted in the waterfront federal courthouse in Boston....
